

Bioclinica Update – Newark Office

June 14, 2021

To our valued customers and partners,

We are excited to announce the relocation of the Newark, California office to a new location in San Mateo, California, effective June 14, 2021. As with all our offices due to COVID-19, the San Mateo office location will be temporarily closed until Fall of 2021 but will be open for select essential personnel to process shipments and mail. All couriers were notified of our new address and forwarding of all data via courier has been arranged.

In preparation for the move, appropriate measures have been taken to identify risks and mitigation steps were made to ensure no disruption to our clients' studies.

Please update your contacts and begin to use the new address below. Our main phone and fax numbers have not changed. We look forward to welcoming you to our new office soon.

Address:

777 Mariners Island Boulevard
Suite 550
San Mateo, CA 94404
